The university and the city

Thessaloniki is the second largest city in Greece, with a lively and interesting present and a long and important past. The city was established in 316 B.C. The modern city is a crossroad of peoples from all over the world, lively and bustling with life. Places to visit: The Palace of Galerius, The Roman Market and Theatre, the Roman Baths, Byzantine Churches, the Archaeological and Byzantine Museums etc.

The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (A.U.Th.), founded in 1925, is the largest University of South-Eastern Europe. It has 11 Faculties, 41 Schools, approximately 65.026 undergraduate students, 8.472 postgraduate students and more than 2.000 members of the A.U.Th. teaching and research staff, which makes Thessaloniki a real student city. The A.U.Th. is situated only a few minutes from the city centre. The academic year runs from October till May (June and September are examination periods).

Founded in 1997, the UNESCO Chair on Education for Human Rights, Democracy and Peace is part of the UNITWIN/ UNESCO Chairs Programme. It focuses its activities on introducing and promoting in the University, as well as in primary and secondary education curricula, the concepts of human rights and
